Representation of Mr. D. Srinivasa Iyengar, acting Revenue Secretary, regarding his salary as Special Officer in the Survey Department.

OPINION OF THE COUNCIL.

The First and Second Members of Council are of opinion that Mr. Srinivasa Iyengar may be given a pay and deputation allowance that would bring up his emoluments to the pay of a third grade Deputy Commissioner, so long as a junior officer is holding the place of Deputy Commissioner.

The Third Member has no objection to Mr. Srinivasa Iyengar getting the pay of Rs.800 but is not in favour of the principle of compensating a senior officer when a junior officer is promoted in the regular line.

(b) All cases sent to the Financial Secretary under this rule should be treated as immediate and returned to the Department concerned within three days of receipt.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Council is put up.

Forwarded, with compliments, to the Financial Secretary to Government, under paragraph 9 * of the Government Order No. G. 17572-8—G. M. 676-17-1, dated 22nd June 1918.

By Order,

11-11-21

Chief Secretary to Government.

The period of training of this officer may be fixed. His deputation involves extra cost and it has to be minimized.

Officers can be given only charges the emoluments of the ~~officer~~ the duties of which they actually perform. If for any reason, a junior is preferred for promotion it is not right to give larger emoluments to the senior whose duties remain unchanged. Pay + allces should have reference to Charges and held and the cost of public service should not be unnecessarily increased on other considerations

Mr.D.Srinivasa Iyengar as Revenue Secretary to Government, is a Senior Assistant Commissioner provisionally permanent on a pay of Rs.600 per mensem. He has been ordered to be deputed to the Survey Department with a deputation allowance of 20 per cent of his pay, that is, Rs.120 per mensem. His total emoluments during his special duty in the Survey Department will therefore be Rs.600 plus Rs.120 or Rs.720.

P.W.D

He now represents that as acting Revenue Secretary, he has been drawing a salary of Rs.800 per mensem (the minimum pay of a Deputy Commissioner) and requests that he may be seconded as a Deputy Commissioner while Mr.Syed Taj Peeran, his junior, continues as Acting Deputy Commissioner, as has been done in the case of Messrs.S.P.Rajagopalachari and T.Thumboo Chetty.

The matter was considered in Council at the meeting held on the 10th November 1921 when the following opinion has been recorded:-

" The First and Second Members of Council are of opinion that Mr.Srinivasa Iyengar may be given a pay and deputation allowance that would bring up his emoluments to the pay of a third grade Deputy Commissioner, so long as a junior officer is holding the place of Deputy Commissioner.

" The Third Member has no objection to Mr.Srinivasa Iyengar getting the pay of Rs.800 but is not in favour of the principle of compensating a senior officer when a junior officer is promoted in the regular line."

Lees

The Financial Secretary considers that officers can only be given the emoluments of the charges, the duties of which they actually perform and that if, for any reason, a junior is preferred for promotion, it is not right to give larger emoluments to the seniors whose duties remain unchanged.

I agree with the 1st and Second Members in the view that Mr.D.Srinivasa Iyengar's claim to be given the minimum pay of a Deputy Commissioner as long as any of his juniors are acting as such, is a valid one.

I submit the papers for His Highness' gracious orders.

My dear Sir,

I am directed to return File No.CI dated 17th November 1921 and to say that His Highness is not in favour of admitting the claim, as a matter of right, of any Senior Assistant Commissioner to be compensated if a junior is promoted over him.

It is a recognized rule of the service that in the matter of promotion, seniority counts up to and including the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioner, that promotion to the grade of Deputy Commissioner is made by selection and that no officer can claim such promotion on the ground of seniority alone.

Your proposal does not seem to be in consonance with the above rule and His Highness will be glad if you will consider this aspect of the case, and resubmit the case if you think necessary.

A great deal depends on the opinion held as to the fitness of Mr. D. Srinivasiengar for promotion to the grade of Deputy Commissioner and His Highness is not aware of the reasons which led to an officer of Mr. D. Srinivasa Iyengar's comparatively senior rank being relegated to a post in the Survey Department, instead of being promoted to Ag. Deputy Commissioner.

Yours sincerely,

Bangalore,
21st December 1922.

My dear Sir,

I return herewith the file regarding Mr. D. Srinivasa Iyengar sent with your D.O. letter No. 143 of the 24th November 1921. The subject was informally discussed in Council on the 5th instant and again on the 20th instant.

In selecting Mr. Srinivasa Iyengar for the Survey Department, the idea was not to relegate him to a less important position because he was found unfit for promotion in the regular line. The intention was to select a suitable Senior Officer from the Civil Service for training in the Department to speed up settlement operations and eventually to succeed to the headship of the Department, if found fit.

On a previous occasion, the Council had indeed resolved to pass over Mr. Srinivasa Iyengar in favour of Mr. Syed Taj Peeran who was proposed to be appointed Deputy Commissioner. The Council Resolution (dated the 4th September 1919) was as follows:-

> "Mr. D. Srinivasa Iyengar is also senior to Mr. Syed Taj Peeran, but as he is considered somewhat unsuitable for the executive charge of a District, he may be passed over on this occasion."

On that occasion Mr. Hiriyannaiya was appointed Deputy Commissioner, and in your D.O. letter No. 140 of the 12th September 1919, it was stated that Mr Syed Taj Peeran's claims might be considered on the occurence of the next vacancy It was in accordance with this that, when Mr. C. Venkata Rao went on leave in May 1920, the Council resolved to appoint Mr. Syed Taj Peeran to the place.

It is however, not possible to say definitely that Mr. Srinivasa Iyengar is unfit for a Deputy Commissioner's place without giving him a trail. Besides, whatever his fitness for the executive line may be, there are no sufficient grounds to debar his promotion entirely. Recently he was appointed to officiate as Revenue Secretary to Government. His posting to the Survey Department was as mentioned above a matter of selection. A great deal depends on the enthusiasm and energy of this officer during the period of his training and it is necessary that he should not all the time be smarting under a sense of injury. It is in this view that the Council made their recommendation contained in their resolution of the 10th November 1921. In view however of the objection to compensate a senior officer when a junior officer is promoted in the regular line which was emphasised at the time by the Third Member, the other Members also are now of the opinion that during the period of Mr. Srinivasa Iyengar's employment in the Survey Department as a Special Officer, his emoluments may be fixed at Rs 800 irrespective of the promotion or reversion of his juniors in the general line. His salary may be fixed at Rs 600 (permanent pay) plus a Duty Allowance of Rs 200/-.

Yours sincerely,

sd/- M. Kantharaj Urs.

Dear Sir

I beg to enclose a representation to Government and request you to kindly support my case and obtain favorable orders thereon.

Thanking you in anticipation

Yours sincerely

D. Srinivasa Gupta

I beg to thank the Government sincerely for their kindness in deputing me to Survey Department, in view to my qualifying for further advancement in that Department.

2. It is obvious however that in a small and self-contained Department (like the Survey there is only the headship of the Department to look forward to, itself no higher at present than a Deputy Commissionership), in place of the many greater and more frequent chances in the general line, arising by leave, retirement, promotion, etc., among Deputy Commissioners and higher officers. Nevertheless, I uncomplainingly accept the transfer, confident that in the long run the Government will not let me suffer in my prospects.

3 On one point however the G.O. is not explicit. It sanctions me a deputation allowance of 20 per cent over my salary. The salary I am now getting as Acting Revenue Secretary is Rs.800/= "the pay of a [illegible] Deputy Commissioner", as stated in another G.O. which reached me by the same post. I pray therefore that I may be seconded as a Deputy Commissioner while Mr. Taj Peeran, who is my junior, continues as Deputy Commissioner, following the usual precedent, e.g., the cases of Messrs. Rajagopalachar and Thambu Chetty as also of officers appointed as Secretaries to Government and given a starting salary of Rs.800/- in order that I may not suffer in my emoluments. I humbly urge that this would be no more than ordinary justice to me. Neither Mr. Heblikar, Kesava Iyengar, nor Anantaraman, who had been originally posted to the Survey Department, would have forfeited the periodical increments or higher grade promotions due to them in the general line and I submit that it would be very harsh to let my transfer have that disastrous effect and that too after I have actually been in the receipt of a promotion for some months.

4. I trust that the Government will graciously grant this prayer for justice, as an encouragement to me to enter upon my new work with energy and enthusiasm.

Yours obedient servant

Yours faithfully
